

AAOMS PRACTICE BASED RESEARCH NETWORK
CONFIDENTIALITY AGREEMENT

Research practice participants have many obligations to the study and PBRN. Every effort will be made to maintain the confidentiality of subjects medical and research records related to this study. The monitor, the auditor, the Institutional Review Board (IRB), and other regulatory authority(ies) will be granted direct access to subjects original medical and research records for verification of clinical trial (research study) procedures or study data without violating any confidentiality, to the extent permitted by the applicable laws and regulations.

That the disclosure of Confidential Information by the Parties is in confidence and thus the Parties agree to:

- a. Not disclose the Confidential Information to any other person
- b. use at least the same degree of care to maintain the Confidential Information as the Receiving Party uses in maintaining as confidential its own confidential information, but always at least a reasonable degree of care;
- c. Use the Confidential Information only for the Research Purpose;
- d. Restrict disclosure of the Confidential Information solely to those employees of the Receiving Party having a need to know such Confidential Information in order to accomplish the Purpose;
- e. Advise each such employee, before he or she receives access to the Confidential Information, of the obligations of the Parties under this Agreement, and require each such employee to maintain those obligations. The Confidential Information may be communicated to the University's scientific and/or institutional review committee(s) under a similar, appropriate understanding of the confidential and/or proprietary nature of the Confidential Information supplied and to further the Purpose.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have executed this Confidentiality Agreement in conjunction with the Voluntary Participation in AAOMS Practice Based Research Network Agreement.
