2026 AAOMS Coding and Billing Courses

Please Note

- Current CDT, CPT and ICD-10-CM coding manuals are required for the Introduction to Insurance Coding and Billing and OMS Coding Essentials: Medical and Dental Procedures and Diagnoses courses, as well as the in-person OMS Coding Essentials course. The ICD-10-CM for OMS course requires the ICD-10-CM coding manual. Current CPT and CDT coding manuals are required for the Coding for Implants and Bone Grafts course. The Medical Terminology and Oral Facial Anatomy, Medicare for OMS and OMS Billing courses do not require coding manuals. Note: AAOMS does not provide coding manuals.

- Allied staff member pricing is available only to AAOMS fellows and members' staff who have applied and been approved for AAOMS membership. Registration rates are based on the registrant's membership status. Memberships are individual.

- Registration fees for the courses are per person. Online courses cannot be taken as a group. A registration form must be submitted for each person taking the course. Usernames and passwords for the online courses may not be shared.

- If sponsoring another dental professional who is not an AAOMS member, please download and submit a separate registration form. Note: The CCP bundle is not available for other dental professionals. Email coding@aaoms.org for more information.

- Once you receive confirmation of registration to an online course or the CCP bundle, you will have immediate access to the course(s) by using your AAOMS.org credentials. You will have six months to complete the online course(s).

- Course materials are based on the coding standards and guidance for the year of registration (i.e., 2026). Access to the course is limited to six months from your registration date and does not include updates or revisions released after Dec. 31 of that year. If your access period extends into the following calendar year, course content will remain aligned with the prior year's coding standards.

Online Courses Cancellation Policy

Registration for online courses (including those in the CCP bundle) is final. No refunds will be granted for online courses. AAOMS will allow only one 30-day extension of a registrant's access to an online coding course or the CCP bundle upon written request up to 10 days prior to expiration of the registrant's access. Once an extension is granted, the online course access will expire upon completion of the online course OR at the end of the 30-day extension period. Registrants who do not complete the course or the CCP bundle within the allotted time frame will need to re-register and pay again for the course(s). If a participant is registered for the in-person OMS Coding Essentials course and does not attend, registration will be forfeited and is not transferable.

Coding Certificate Program

Complete AAOMS Introduction to Insurance Coding and Billing (online), OMS Coding Essentials: Medical and Dental Procedures and Diagnoses (online or in-person) and OMS Billing Essentials: Navigating the Insurance and Reimbursement System (online) within 6 months and join an elite group of OMS coding professionals. At the conclusion of this series, participants can claim expertise in OMS coding and billing, having successfully finished an unrivaled, specialty-specific certificate of completion program. Visit AAOMS.org/CCP for more information.

Allied Staff Membership

All professional staff of AAOMS members practicing in the United States are eligible for AAOMS allied staff membership.

Benefits include discounted educational offerings, access to AAOMS resources, CareerLine and newsletters.

For information on becoming an AAOMS allied staff member, visit AAOMS.org/AlliedStaff.

AAOMS Allied Staff Member Registration

To receive the allied staff member discounted rate, an active allied staff member application must be on file. If interested in receiving the allied staff member rate, please wait to register until your membership has been confirmed. For questions related to membership status, call the AAOMS Membership Department at 800-822-6637.

Other Dental Professionals

When sponsored by an AAOMS member, dental professionals can register for exclusive and convenient online coding courses. A separate registration form is needed. Email coding@aaoms.org for more information.

Visit AAOMS.org/CEonline to view CE on Demand courses.

OMS residents can enjoy complimentary registration for Introduction to Insurance Coding and Billing, ICD-10-CM for OMS and the online CCP bundle.

There is an audio component to online courses; a computer with speakers is needed.

Current CDT, CPT and ICD-10-CM coding manuals are required for the Introduction to Insurance Coding and Billing and OMS Coding Essentials: Medical and Dental Procedures and Diagnoses online courses, as well as the in-person OMS Coding Essentials course. The ICD-10-CM for OMS course requires the ICD-10-CM coding manual. Current CPT and CDT coding manuals are required for the Coding for Implants and Bone Grafts course. The Medical Terminology and Oral Facial Anatomy, Medicare for OMS and OMS Billing Essentials courses do not require coding manuals. AAOMS does not provide coding manuals.
